TAX

Creativity, diversity, integrity, proactivity, teamwork, curiosity and innovation are just some of the characteristics of our tax team.

We enjoy working hand in hand with our clients analyzing complex and daily inquiries creating value while strengthening the role and visibility of their internal lawyers and accountants.

We are proud to anticipate the needs of our clients, taking proactivity to a completely new level.

We focus on building teams, selecting the right assets within the firm and our clients to be able to assess their businesses without the typical limitations of traditional tax planning.

Our team consists of specialists in the diverse areas of Tax Law covering local and international tax planning, and complex litigation at national, provincial and municipal levels. The services provided by the tax sector include effective structuring of investment projects (local and foreign), advice on financial structures to international companies and banks, mining project structuring and reorganizations.

Special focus is given to entrepreneurs and technology companies in their gradual growth from start-up to unicorn stage, accompanying companies in all stages of growth.
